Volunteer Disclosure Statement

For purposes of reporting to the government and grant giving organizations, the Oaks Indian Mission requires a record of the value of “in-kind” donations of goods and services donated to the Mission by volunteer work groups. The term “goods” includes all expenses associated with the trip to the Mission and return home, the cost of material purchased/donated, equipment rentals and other miscellaneous costs, and money given in support of the project or for general expenses. The term “services” includes volunteer hours worked by category: general, trades, and professional/administrative.
